Arts networking night back in Bathurst

Arts OutWest are bringing their popular Winter Arts Networking Nights back to Bathurst, from 5pm Wednesday 27 July at Webb&Co.

The night is a chance for anyone interested in any area of the arts industry to meet likeminded others, share their latest project and chat with Arts OutWest staff.

A handful of locals will present six minute slide shows about their work. They'll share an eclectic mix of stories and ideas: hear about experimental theatre making, techniques in printmaking, self-publishing a picture book, the Hill End Artist in Residence program and an artist's inspiration from travel.

There will be networking activities and a chance to chat informally.

These nights have been held across the region for the past two winters with great success. This will be the third time the event has been held in Bathurst.

"It's a great way to promote what you do and enthuse others about it," Arts OutWest executive director Tracey Callinan said. "This is also social event for the whole arts and creative community, for anyone interested in arts and culture. A chance to meet, mingle, introduce yourself, make contacts and maybe even kick start future collaborations," Ms Callinan said.

Everyone in the community is invited to come along to hear the local presentations and to network. Entry is by donation, finger food will be provided.

Other events are scheduled for Orange (16 August at the Union Bank), Forbes, Grenfell, Canowindra, Cowra, Oberon, Condobolin and Parkes. Events have been held already this year in Lithgow and Blayney.

To RSVP (for catering numbers) call Arts OutWest on 6338 4657 or email artsoutwest@csu.edu.au
