WHAT'S ON November 2018

ARTSTATE BATHURST 2018: 1 - 4 November

ARTSTATE

Artstate is a four-year project by Regional Arts NSW to shine a light on excellence in regional arts practice and to explore the exciting possibilities for arts and cultural development across the state.

From 1-4 November 2018 there will be an exciting two-day program of speakers exploring the themes of A Sense of Place and Robust Regions. Accompanying the Speakers Program will be a diverse Arts Program featuring creatives from across the Central West of NSW.

CONFERENCE

Hear from key industry leaders and speakers including Jonathan Jones (AU), Frith Walker (NZ), Jack Archer (AU) and Kresanna Aigner (UK).

ARTSTATE FRINGE

Artstate Fringe includes cultural events in Bathurst that are not part of the official program, but run alongside it.

ARTSTATE REGIONAL

Artstate Regional includes cultural events in the Arts OutWest footprint that are on during Artstate.

For details on all these exhibits, events and performances visit the Artstate website.

www.artstate.com.au

ARTS PROGRAM

Artstate 2018 will showcase the rich and deep artistic and cultural identity of the Central West, a region that continues to be a breeding ground for a new generation of young artists, and a place for established, renowned artists to make their home.
