

MEDIA RELEASE

Wednesday 2 August 2017

Winter Arts Networking returns to Bathurst

Warm your wintery hands by the glow of local creativity with Arts OutWest again presenting their very popular Winter Arts Networking Night in Bathurst.

Arts OutWest are bringing their popular social event back on Wednesday 16 August at Webb & Co in Bathurst.

The night is a chance for anyone interested in any area of the arts industry to meet likeminded others, share their latest project and meet Arts OutWest staff.

In previous years, the evening has included presentations by local creatives and industry workers.

“This year, the evening will be undergoing a bit of a revamp – however, if someone is keen to present their work in the short, snappy (six minute) slide shows format we have used in previous years, we’re more than happy to accommodate them,” Arts OutWest executive director Tracey Callinan said.

“This is also a social event for the whole arts and creative community, for anyone interested in arts and culture. A chance to meet, mingle, introduce yourself, make contacts and maybe even kick start future collaborations,” Ms Callinan said.

Entry is free, finger food will be provided, drinks available at the bar.

Arts OutWest’s Winter Arts Networking Nights are held in towns across the NSW Central West. Other scheduled events for August are:

Lithgow: Wednesday 23 August, Eskbank House

Orange: Wednesday 30 August, Union Bank

To propose a presentation, or to RSVP (for catering numbers) call Arts OutWest on 6338 4657 or email artsoutwest@csu.edu.au

Image: Tracey Callinan at a previous Winter Arts Networking event in Bathurst. Photo: Joe Velikovsky