

MEDIA RELEASE

Tuesday 30 May 2019

Stories and Songs from Wales in Kandos

Sharing stories and songs in English and Welsh, three performers from the UK's acclaimed Adverse Camber will be guests for a performance at St Laurence's Anglican Church Hall on Tuesday 14 May at 7pm.

Enjoy one of Wales' most engaging storytellers alongside exquisitely haunting live music.

The storytellers are spending two weeks in the NSW Central West as guests of Arts OutWest and Bathurst Memorial Entertainment Centre (BMEC). Their Kando performance is supported by Cementa.

Alongside small local performances they'll run storytelling workshops, connect and share stories with local communities and restage their bilingual show 'Dreaming the Night Field' at BMEC.

In Lithgow performers Michael Harvey (Storyteller), Lynne Denman (Singer) and Stacey Blythe (Composer/Musician) will present traditional and reimagined Welsh stories.

"Arts OutWest has developed a relationship with Adverse Camber over the past few years and are very excited to be bringing these exceptional performers to the region and for audiences to enjoy their unique storytelling skills," Arts OutWest executive director Tracey Callinan said.

Tickets for the Lithgow performance are $20 at the door.

The main stage production 'Dreaming the Night Field' is on at BMEC Wednesday 15 May at 7.30pm and Saturday 18 May at 8pm. Tickets from bmec.com.au. Other events will be held in Condobolin, Lithgow, Bathurst, Orange and Hill End.

For the full list of their performances go to artsoutwest.org.au

Media Contact: Tracey Callinan (executive director), Steven Cavanagh or Maryanne Jaques (communications officers), Arts OutWest

02 6338 4657 or artsoutwest@csu.edu.au

The performers from Adverse Camber will be in the NSW Central West May 1-18 and will be available for interviews.

Other key dates:

'Welsh Stories and Songs' performance

- Saturday 4 May 3pm Royal Hall Hill End
- Friday 10 May from 1-6pm, Wiradjuri Study Centre Condobolin (free event. Includes workshop and community BBQ)
- Saturday 11 May at 11am, Orange Regional Conservatorium (includes workshop)
- Sunday 12 May at 4.30pm, Gang Gang Gallery Lithgow
- Tuesday 14 May 6pm Kandos (details to follow)

'Dreaming the Night Field' Wed May 15, 7.30pm and Saturday May 18, 8pm, Bathurst Memorial Entertainment Centre.